SPOTLIGHT

Hey Fort Bliss, Welcome to our MWR Spotlight!

This is the fun, new feature in our blissNOW magazine! In every issue, this segment will include a behind-the-scenes look at one of our many MWR facilities, programs, or events, tried and reviewed so you can know before you go!

Fort Bliss Feature: Oktoberfest

What happened: Our annual Oktoberfest took over Biggs Park on September 18–20, bringing the Fort Bliss and El Paso community together for one of the biggest celebrations of the year! There was a ton of dancing with Terry Cavanagh and the Alpine Express and the German Air Force Schuhplattlers, plus authentic German food and beer and plenty of competitions throughout the weekend!

The verdict: Friday was a night full of fun! This was my first time attending Oktoberfest, and I'll definitely be back. The ceremonial keg tapping was incredibly cool to watch, and it was a blast seeing everyone join in competitions like the keg toss and stein holding. There were also amazing steins available to purchase and take home, so you can celebrate Oktoberfest all year long. The bratwurst (and fries) were to die for! You'll see me again next year, and I hope to catch you there, too!

Good to know: Admission was free for the first time ever! Oktoberfest was open to ages 18+ on Friday and Saturday and ran from 6pm to midnight. If you have kiddos, bring them to Family Day on Sunday from 11am to 3pm. My suggestion: Come hungry, dress comfortably (but festive), and get ready for a guaranteed good time!

BOSS
BETTER OPPORTUNITIES FOR SINGLE SOLDIERS
U.S. ARMY

BY ALEXIS ESCOBAR-PAZ
MWR MARKETING

Every December, thousands of Soldiers head home for holiday block leave and Fort Bliss goes quiet… but heading home isn't an option for everyone. Distance, duty rosters, and personal circumstances keep dozens of single and unaccompanied Soldiers on post, and for them, those quiet weeks can feel isolating. Fort Bliss' Better Opportunities for Single Soldiers (BOSS) Program's offers a solution: BOSSmas.

Now in its second year, BOSSmas runs December 18 through 25, with an event every day:

- DEC 18: Avengers Endgame Movie Night
- DEC 19: Wreaths Across America Volunteer Mission
- DEC 20: Downtown El Paso WinterFest and Ice Skating
- DEC 21: Holiday Light Drive-Thru
- DEC 22: White Elephant Gift Exchange
- DEC 23: Gifts of Gunpowder on the Range
- DEC 24: The Nutcracker Live
- DEC 25: Hearts & Homes for the Holidays

The week wraps up on December 25 with Hearts and Homes for the Holidays! BOSS partners with the Fort Bliss Spouses' Association to provide unaccompanied Soldiers with a family to stay with and enjoy home-cooked meals, gifts, and more! The message is simple: you are valued, you are family, and Fort Bliss is your home.

How to join: All Single and unaccompanied Active-Duty Soldiers living on post are welcome, whether for one event or all eight days. Register ahead of time by calling 915-744-1529 or by scanning the QR code below.

Eight days, eight events, and one promise: no Soldier at Fort Bliss spends the holidays alone.
