

Ft. Bliss RV Park Stay Policy

AR 215-1, paragraph 8-25, 24 September 2010 prohibits homesteading. The Ft. Bliss RV Park is not housing. Patrons may renew in 2 week increments up to 60 days in peak season (September-March) and 90 days in non-peak season (April-August). After the 60/90 day period, patrons may renew as long as there is no wait list & the park consistently has at least 10 spaces available. After the 60/90 period, patrons who vacate the park, must do so for a minimum of 7 days. Patrons may be required to move to a different space in the park, creating more equity for desired locations near the bathhouse, family room, etc.

Request to the exception to the stay policy guidelines

All requests for unforeseen circumstances that will require a long term exception will be provided in writing to the RV Park manager. The Garrison Commander is the deciding official for long term exceptions. Personnel on extended stays must comply with local and State law relative to taxation, vehicle registry, and other residency issues.

Exceptions to the Ft. Bliss Stay policy will only be considered for unforeseen circumstances. Medical procedures scheduled in advance do not qualify.

When submitting an exception to the stay policy request letter, please include the following:

1. Reason why you are requesting an exception to the Ft. Bliss RV Park stay policy.
2. Length of time you are requesting to include an end date.
3. Any supporting documentation that you may have.
