Old Fort Bliss Replica

Old Fort Bliss Replica

Come visit at 5054 Pershing Road!

- Old Fort Bliss Replica is a reproduction of Fort Bliss in 1854 when it was officially named after LT Col William Wallace Smith Bliss.
- The complex of buildings was a gift to Fort Bliss in 1949 from the city of El Paso commemorating 100 years of community and cooperation between the two entities.
- From its inception it has served as a museum although over the years its purpose and content has shifted.
- Currently it contains period rooms highlighting the essentials to daily living in the Borderlands during the 1850s.

Recent rejuvenation projects completed:

- repairs, paint, lighting in the Main Hall
- Grounds clean up
- Display room clean up

Volunteers needed

Gardening, painting, handyman, wood workers, maintenance cleaning, costume repair, holiday decorating, reenactors, and docents.

Old Fort Bliss Replica

Did you know the Replica is available for rent?

Now available for:

- Private Parties
- ORG Days
- FRG Meetings
- Changes of Command/Responsibility ceremonies and receptions

It is the only MWR facility that allows outsourced catering!

Rental options-

Pavilions only
Pavilions and Main Hall
Entire Museum grounds

Revenue from the facility rental helps purchase display items for the museum and increase its educational value to the community.
