William Beaumont Army Medical Center

Delivering Quality Healthcare to Soldiers and Beneficiaries to Sustain a Ready Force

Early years (1849–1892)
From its beginnings in 1849, the medical units that supported the Army installation in El Paso have moved several times. In January 1854, "The Post of El Paso del Norte", was established on Magoffin's Ranch. Remains of the original Army Hospital located at Hart's Mill were uncovered by archaeologists in 2012 near the main campus of University of Texas At El Paso.

Formative years (1893–1898)
The 1890s saw the establishment of a permanent hospital at Fort Bliss in support of a permanent regimental post along the border. This building, now known as Building 8, is currently the location of the Fort Bliss Inspector General's Office.

Spanish–American War (1898–1902)
During this period, the hospital supported a skeletal garrison at Fort Bliss, containing never more than 100 Soldiers. By 1902 the hospital, along with all the buildings on Fort Bliss, had fallen into disrepair.

Civil War – under control of Confederate Army (1861–1862)
Fort Bliss and the hospital remained Confederate until 20 Aug 1862. The retreating Confederate troops destroyed all of Fort Bliss, except for the hospital, which housed their sick and wounded.

18511 Highlander Medics St
Fort Bliss, TX 79918

New Fort Bliss Post Hospital (1903–1919)

The new Post Hospital building was completed in 1904. The first Army dental training school was established at the Fort Bliss Post Hospital in September 1916 by Captain Robert T. Oliver.

World War II and after (1940–1968)

William Beaumont General Hospital served as one of many prisoner-of-war hospitals across the United States that supported the prisoner-of-war camps at Fort Bliss and surrounding camps during World War II. During early 1945, approximately 6,000 inpatients were treated.

William Beaumont Army Medical Center (1969–March 2021)

In 1969, the Army began construction of a new, 12-story hospital to the west of the WBGH area. Completed in 1972, the new facility became known as the William Beaumont Army Medical Center. Although originally designed for 611 beds, the hospital had a bed capacity for more than 150 patients; during contingencies, the hospital could expand for 373 patients. As the Southwest's major regional Army medical center, this facility provided medical care to active and retired military personnel and their dependents as well as Veteran beneficiaries in the three-state region of Texas, New Mexico, and Arizona.

What can you do to assist with controlling Feral, Stray or Wild Animals?

Evidence of residents feeding feral cats were observed on Ft Bliss within the Housing Areas. Feral cats, and food provided to feral, stray and wild animals, are attractants and food sources for coyotes and other wild animals.

Please:

- DO NOT feed feral, stray, or wild animals.
- DO NOT confront, approach, or corner any animals, as they may perceive it as a threat.
- DO NOT leave pets, pet food, food scraps, or trash outdoors and available to animals.
- REPORT all sightings to the Service Order Desk.

Better Opportunities for Single Soldiers

CUJ

- ✓ Many Single Soldiers are unaware of the BOSS program, as their units do not have representatives.
 - Please ensure your units all have a BOSS representative who will brief the Single Soldiers and maintain a board with flyers we provide.
 - As we rebuild the program, we went from having 0 representatives in February 2021, to having 75 currently (including alternates).
 - On May 27th, BOSS gave out 40 Chihuahuas baseball tickets, units without representatives miss out on these types of giveaways.
 - The following slides will show where we are lacking representation:
(3rd Brigade is mobilizing, they should still ensure they get representatives for their Rear-Detachment elements, but primarily focus on networking with the BOSS units in Korea.

III Corps Representation Map

 = Battalions that have at least one BOSS rep within them

- Units with a blue key STILL aren't completely represented.
- Many have only one BOSS rep for the entire BN.

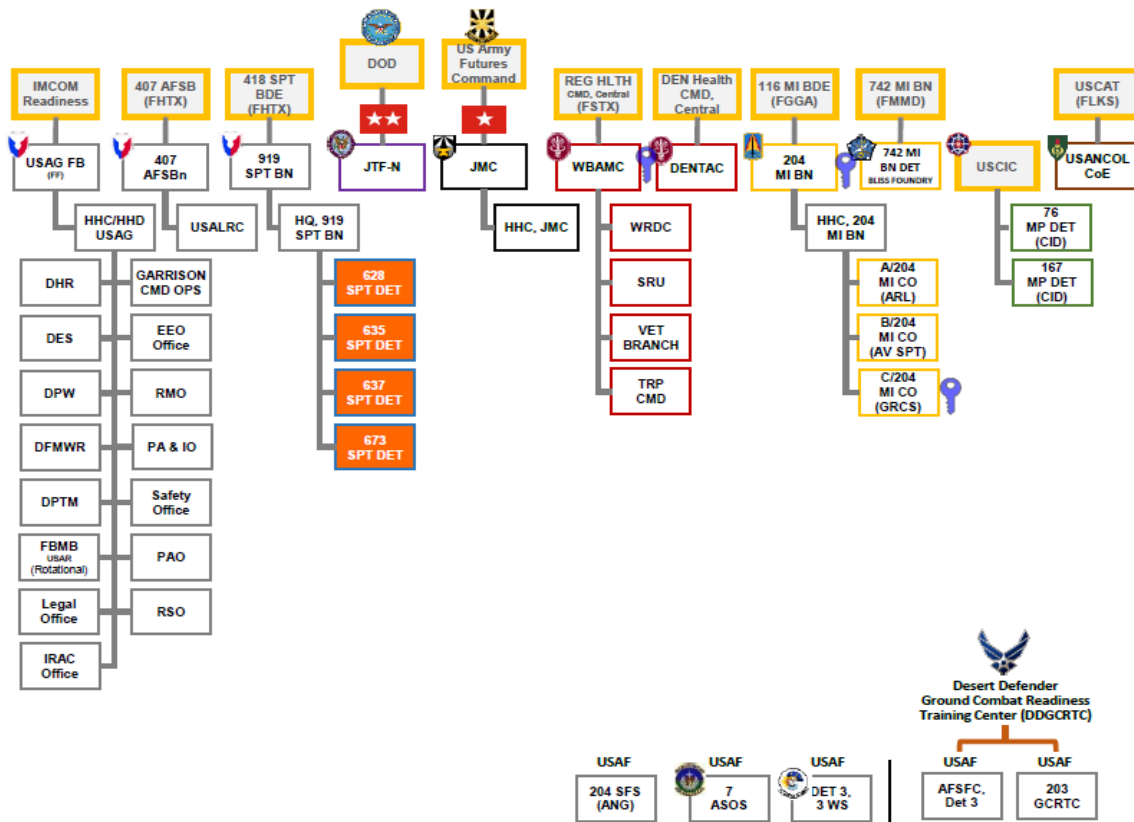

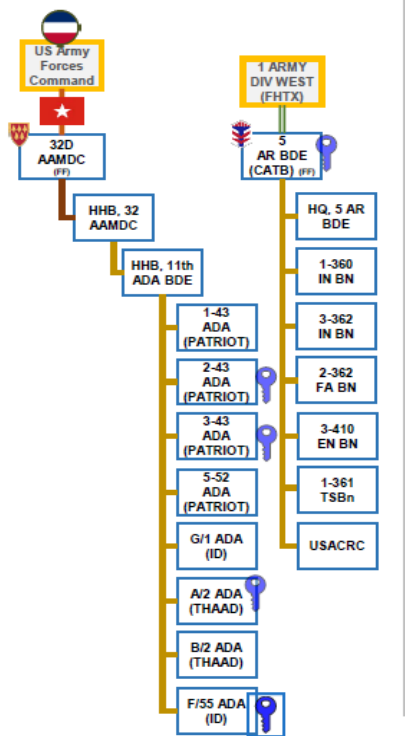

2-3 FA almost has complete representation, apart from their HHB battery.

Other Units

= Battalions that have at least one BOSS rep within them

Reserve/Guard and other branches are encouraged to have BOSS Representatives as well
