- Minimum 20 & Maximum 40 Participants.
- Cruise not recommended for small children or strollers

Transportation and Cruise fee: $40

Wolmido Island is located 1 Km off the Incheon coast, with a name that describes an island shape resembling the tail of a half moon. Due to its proximity to Seoul; many people come to visit this island during the weekends. It is popular for its numerous cafes and seafood restaurants that overlook the West Sea. The island has several interesting sights such as Culture Street, the Doodle pillar, Meeting Square, Arts Square, Performance Square, Good Harvest Square and many other squares that feature street performers and artists. You can also visit Play Hill, the island's theme park, or take a boat cruise that goes around the island every hour. Although young children are welcome, parents with strollers should be advised that they may have a difficult time navigating their way aboard and around the tour boats.
